Before discussing the applications, members of the public with an interest were invited to speak. They raised several issues, including concerns about the drainage of surface and foul water from the site, given that the existing drains and pumping station, as well as the Bourn recycling facility are already unable to cope with existing drainage. They also raised concerns about the clustering of social housing within the design, the height of the proposed housing, the absence of a landscape buffer on the parts of the development closest to existing housing, the absence of a footpath to the school, restricted access to the agricultural land adjoining the site, the proposed siting of the badger set, the absence of community allotments or orchards, the proposal for the involvement of a Management Committee, and the inclusion of the road in phase I of the planning application, which is likely to constrain the possible layout of phase II of the development.

It was RESOLVED to object to both applications and to include a detailed list of the grounds for the objection (see attached). Proposed HC, seconded JP. Cllr T Hawkins abstained from the vote.

Housing

South Cambs and Cambridge City recently published our draft new Greater Cambridge Housing strategy, setting out how both authorities aim to meet the housing challenges in our area over the next five years 2019 – 2023.

The overall aim is to bring forward homes that are affordable for people to live in, energy efficient and close to where jobs are (ideally). This falls in line with our overall aim of reducing carbon footprint to zero by 2050. The strategy outlines key priorities such as homes for essential local workers, those on low to median incomes, older people, specialist accommodation for young people or those at risk, accelerating number of homes built per year, types of building companies involved in the delivery, high standard of design, promoting health and wellbeing through housing and working with key partners to deliver homes for our residents etc.

The public consultation was launched is ongoing and runs up to 25 January 2019, giving residents an opportunity to contribute and influence the strategy before it is finalised later this year. Read more and comment at <https://www.scambs.gov.uk/housing/housing-strategy-consultation/>.

Planning

Wellcome Genome Campus expansion – S/4329/18/OL

The world-renowned South Cambridgeshire Wellcome Genome campus have submitted a planning application to provide extra research space and up to 1,500 homes for staff working on the campus in Hinxton. The proposal includes plans for up to 150,000 sqm of employment space, creating around 4,300 jobs (currently 2500 approx work on the site), up to 1500 homes and a nursery for up to 150 children, community hall, health centre, shops and food outlets, school (if needed), transport improvement (cycling, walking, new roundabout on the A1301).

Wellcome Trust have indicated that the campus will be open to the public allowing neighbouring communities to use some of the open space and community facilities. It is the first of its kind in the district, and will no doubt be of interest both inside and outside the district.

Public consultation is now underway and runs till Friday 25 January 2019. Please have a look and comment on these plans. and opens up p

Cambridge Northern Fringe

The Greater Cambridge shared planning service has published a joint plan for how a new district could be created on the land between the A14, new Cambridge North Railway Station and Cambridge Science Park.

This is the last brownfield site of its type in the area, and one that could be developed into a low carbon community with thousands of new homes, jobs and community facilities. Anglian Water's water treatment facility will need to be relocated for comprehensive regeneration of the area to take place.

In the past the cost of relocating the facility has meant this has not been an option the Councils could consider. However, a bid to Government under their Housing Infrastructure Fund – which was set up to help sites like Cambridge Northern Fringe get off the ground – has recently been submitted to move the water treatment facility. The bid successfully passed the first round of Government assessment and the final outcome is expected in the spring.

This is a unique opportunity for regeneration of a significant brownfield area right on the edge of the city, to provide an environmentally friendly way of living. Its location close to the Science Park, Cambridge North Station, the guided busway and the A14 means that it is well located in transport terms. The emphasis can then be placed on designing low-carbon development where the use of alternative modes of transport is giving precedence over the motor car. This should help its residents reduce their cost of living, running their homes etc.

Both SCDC and Cambridge City propose to carry out a public consultation early this year to give residents an opportunity to get involved and give suggestions on how to develop a plan for the area.

Transport

Cambourne to Cambridge Busway – Phase 2

The Greater Cambridge Partnership (GCP) is holding a Consultation Briefing on Phase 2 of the Cambourne to Cambridge busway route this month. The briefing is taking place at the Cambourne Hub toward the end of January and councillors representing villages along the route are being invited to attend.

The reason for the briefing is that GCP is hoping to open the consultation covering the section from Cambourne to Madingley Mulch roundabout in February 2019.

The GCP has also issued an report giving update on the progress of the C2C Busway project. You can read and download it from this link <http://bit.ly/C2CDec2018Update>. It focuses on Phase 1 of the busway project, and shows the preferred route alignment as being the one the GCP consultants have been pushing from the start, the off road option that cuts through Coton, West Cambridge and ends at Grange Road! How the buses get routed to the city after that is still very unclear.

Business and Finance

Central government announced in the October 2018 budget, changes to Business rates. It proposed the introduction of a new business rates relief for retail premises that are occupied and have a Rateable Value (RV) of less than £51,000. It also announced an extension of the current relief scheme for newspapers.

As one of our three main priorities is to support economic growth in the district, and this involves supporting small and medium businesses too, the Lead Cabinet Member for Finance has agreed revisions to the existing Council rates relief policy to reflect the changes that government announced.

So if you are small business, you can find out more about the available relief by clicking on this link <http://bit.ly/NDR-Relief2019> or contact the Business Rates team at the Council for more information or to find out if you qualify.

Climate and Environment

Following on from my report last month, the decision by South Cambs councillors to raise the bar by aiming to be carbon neutral by 2050 has been making headlines. ITV News carried an interview with a resident of Histon and the District Councillor – which you can read about here.

<https://www.itv.com/news/anglia/2019-01-03/aiming-to-be-britains-first-carbon-neutral-council/>

It is encouraging to see that some residents are taking the carbon reduction challenge seriously.

Combined Authority (CA)

The Mayor's antics have not gone unnoticed by no less than the Private Eye magazine December edition. One of its top stories was about the combined authority and the Mayor making what it called "an expensive pig's ear of running what was meant to be a lean and mean operations". I got a copy of the article which you can find here <http://bit.ly/RottenBoroughCPA>

Please do feel free to contact me with comments, questions, problems, reports, suggestions or complaints to do with SCDC services.

Meanwhile I wish everyone a Happy New Year 2019.

Report 2019

Dear all,

I very much hope you all had a fabulous Christmas and wishing you a great start of a new year. As you may know my family is scattered around the globe and I spent a few days in Germany with one of my sisters and mother. It was a very nice break.

Children's Centres

More than 9 out of 10 of people responding to a survey say they like the way we've reshaped our Child and Family Centres.

In our recent Child and Family Centre survey 93% of the 330 people who shared their views online and at activity sessions agreed that provision was helpful.

The survey ran from September to November 2018 to give families the opportunity to feedback on the new service, which aimed to bring services closer to more vulnerable groups; and invited citizens to tell us how they felt the transition period felt.

The results showed:

- more than a third (36.67%) said they have attended a session in an outreach venue
- Facebook was the most popular choice for people finding out about activities (68.6%) , but people also praised the new look 'What's On' guide
- 6 out of 10 (62%) said they had only started using the service since April

Greenways

I have been receiving much correspondence about this project. I have been raising the concerns with officers and will keep a close eye to how the new proposals develop after the analysis of the consultation. It is imperative that officers listen to residents and include their local knowledge about the area before taking any decisions.

Cambourne to Cambridge

As you know the Greater Cambridge Partnership is looking at analysing two alternative routes to the currently proposed. In the next few months we will have further detail of how this is developing. However, I am concerned that the current route will be maintained. The consultant from Arup is a leading figure in these types of transport schemes and the Mayor as well as officers have been listening to her conclusions about the most cost/effective route.

Human Trafficking

The Home Office has launched its consultation into the role of "First Responders" to modern slavery. These are organisations that can refer suspected victims of people trafficking and modern slavery to the proper authorities, which includes councils. The review is focusing on which organisations should be First Responders and how staff at these organisations are trained to perform this role.

Lina Joseph
Cambridgeshire County Councillor
Hardwick Division

If you have any experience with being a First Responder please do get involved. The consultation is in the form of two online surveys (one for First Responders and one for “non-First Responders”) and will run until late January 2019.

Future Places

Future Place is a new programme aiming to unlock place-making potential at local level through quality in design, future thinking, and knowledge sharing.

For the first phase, local authorities are invited to put in writing their overarching vision (emerging or finalised) for an area and how they are currently working across their programmes to deliver the wider ambitions of the local authority by creating great places.

Joint submissions from adjoining local authorities are welcomed. The deadline for the first phase is 22 January 2019 – more information can be found here.

Housing

The House of Commons Library has published a briefing paper on housing delivery in England, which contains best practice examples of the innovative work councils are doing to deliver homes in their areas.

The House of Commons Library regularly publishes briefing papers that are topic for those working in local government, so it may be useful to sign up to receive these briefings online.

News

More than 20 organisations are signing up to a new partnership to intensify the fight against scams and to make Cambridgeshire and Peterborough a scam-free county. Led by Cambridgeshire County Council and Cambridgeshire Police, the Against Scams Partnership unites more than 20 organisations, including Peterborough City Council, Trading Standards, Age UK, Neighbourhood Watch and NatWest Bank, who will work together to raise awareness of scams and to support victims of scams.

According to Action Fraud, 53% of people aged 65 or over have been targeted by scams and criminals. Being a victim of this crime can have devastating impact. These crimes are often targeted at people in our communities that are vulnerable for a variety of reasons, including poverty, isolation, frailty, disability, cognitive impairment, and by the very nature of them being specifically targeted.

Anyone can be a scam victim, regardless of age, gender, education or economic background; partners are committed to act on the Against Scams Partnership four key aims:

1. Improve awareness of scams
2. Increase protection for everyone, and especially vulnerable people, against scams
3. Implement consistent recording of scams and improve referral processes
4. Improve support for potential victims of scams

Cllr Steve Criswell, chair of Cambridgeshire County Council's Communities and Partnership committee said: "The impact of scams on a victim can be devastating, in some cases people lose their hard earned life savings and are left emotionally and financially unable to continue to live independently. We need to increase the awareness of how to spot a scam and share that knowledge with friends and neighbours."

Jason Ablewhite, Police and Crime Commissioner said: "Each year fraud costs the UK economy between £5 and 10bn and it's believed that only 5% of victims actually report the crime. It's vital that we stand together to tackle this issue head on. We all need to work together to achieve the same goal, which is a scam-free county."

South Cambridge District Council

Tackling loneliness. It is great to see this administration continuing with the work that Conservatives started before them. Cllr. Sue Ellington, who was the portfolio holder for Well-Being then, put a lot of hours into tackling loneliness and was spearheading this project. The idea is for a new toolkit that can give practical help to communities to tackle loneliness and social isolation – which can be as bad for you as smoking 15 cigarettes a day.

According to the Campaign to End Loneliness, there are nine million lonely people in the UK and four million of them are older people. Furthermore, according to Age UK, half a million older people go at least five or six days a week without seeing or speaking to anyone.

Now, South Cambridgeshire District Council has published an online reference guide containing tangible advice on how local groups can set up projects like community cafes, mobile warden schemes and mental health and wellbeing groups.

Crucially, it sets-out how communities can access funding from a variety of sources to get their ideas off the ground. This could include applying to the Council's Community Chest scheme, which provides funding for grass-roots projects, especially those that work to reach people who are lonely or socially isolated. It gives pointers for staying on the right side of health and safety rules, advice on publicity to spread the word about a new project and outlines how groups can measure whether their efforts are working and making a difference.

Combined Authority

The Cambridgeshire and Peterborough Combined Authority have shown their support for a collaborative approach to deliver new homes for disabled adults in Cambridgeshire.

Work has officially kicked off at the site of a former agricultural garage in Chatteris to build fifteen new apartments and three bungalows at the site on Huntingdon Road. The £4m scheme, called Barber Gardens after two young brothers from the town who perished in World War 1, is expected to be completed in summer 2020.

It is being delivered by specialist supported living developer HBV who collaborated with Chatteris Town Council, Fenland District Council and Cambridgeshire County Council to get the scheme started.

Mayor of Chatteris, Councillor Bill Haggata and Roger Thompson of Cambridgeshire & Peterborough Combined Authority officially opened works at the site in a special ground-breaking ceremony which included parents of prospective residents.

Councillor Haggata, said: "I'm delighted to start work at this site in the heart of our community. We need to ensure that the most vulnerable in our society are well cared for and looked after in suitable accommodation. This development will put a lot of smiles on a lot of people's faces when it is completed next year. I'm looking forward to visiting the site when it is completed and meeting the new residents."

Roger Thompson, director of housing and development at Cambridgeshire & Peterborough Combined Authority, said: "This development is a perfect example of collaboration between the private and public sector and is a tangible demonstration of real teamwork. Barber Gardens is set to be a fantastic example of what can be achieved through innovative partnership, working not only between statutory, not for profit and private sectors, but importantly between the NHS and Adult Social Care Teams. We're proud to support this scheme and the best bit is yet to come; welcoming the residents into their new home. We are looking forward to exploring further ways we can support such projects in the future."

Alastair Sheehan, Business Development Director at HBV, said: "We have had tremendous support from the planning team at Fenland District Council and the adult social care officers at Cambridgeshire County Council. Along with positive guidance from local ward councillors in Chatteris and engaging with the local community we are delighted that everyone recognises the need for specialist supported living accommodation for some of the local community's most vulnerable people."
